Resale / Consignment Quality Checklist

Here at FineClothing, we strive to provide a high-quality product to our discerning customers. We do not accept vintage, damaged or "tired" items. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will assume your items meet all of the following conditions and are in excellent/like-new condition. Please carefully inspect all of the items that you wish to sell and properly disclose any condition issues up-front. As a Seller, it is important that you understand that both Consignment Eligibility and our Resale Purchase Estimates, are contingent on your condition guarantees.
